

Sustainable Innovation: Cultivating Growth and Prosperity through Collaboration

Tools and Assistance to Facilitate Farm Development

This session introduces participants to some of the tools available for farmers and farming groups in all regions.

Speakers:

Alfonso Lizarraga, Organic Exchange

Simon Ferrigno, Organic Exchange

Terry Young, Organic Exchange

Organic Exchange Membership

- ❖ Currently host over 200 members from across the supply chain and around the globe
- ❖ Membership levels range from US$100 to US$25,000 annually

Organizations select membership level based on

- ❖ How valuable the information, tools and learning forums we offer are to your company
- ❖ How much your company supports the expansion of organic agriculture

Available to all OE members:

Subscription to quarterly newsletter and member only bulletins

Use of the Organic Cotton Logo and Tagline

Discounted passes to our Annual Conference and Marketplace

Opportunities to sponsor OE events, projects and trade shows

Access to professional staff located around the globe

Connection to a global sustainability network of innovative business people

Availability varies by level of membership:

Company profile on our website's Consumer and/or Business Marketplace

Annual Market Report that provides organic market trends

Annual Farm and Fiber Report that provides comprehensive review of global fiber production and consumption

Guide to Labeling Organic Textile Products

Complimentary passes to Organic Exchange Annual Conference and Marketplace

Accounts on our Online Tracking Service

Customized education, training, strategic business planning and consulting

Organic Exchange 2008 Events

Regional Supply Chain / Farm meetings

Aurangabad, India- January 25-29, 2008

Brazil-April, 2008

Uganda-July, 2008

Annual Conference and Marketplace

European Union, Fall 2008

IFOAM Conference

Modena, Italy-June, 2008

Trade Shows

MAGIC, Las Vegas-February and August

Biofach, Germany

To learn more...

visit the OE information table in the Social Hall or Marketplace

visit our website, www.organicexchange.org

Terry Young,
Director of Member Services

